

Name _____

Novel Terms

1. The novel is more complex than the short story in the following areas:
_____, _____, _____,
and _____.
2. _____ is what the story is really about (the message).
3. A novel may have _____ plots. When there is more than one story line, it is called _____.
4. When the point of view carries the reader into the mind of the character, it is called _____.
5. _____ are secondary plots with secondary characters.
6. _____ is a detailed description of what happened in the past.
7. The general term for figures of speech is _____.
8. _____ is the author's attitude toward the story.
9. _____ is the feeling developed through the characters and setting.
10. The _____ is the central character.
11. The _____ may bring about conflict the the main character.
12. A _____ is an image, character, etc. which stands for an idea or concept.
13. A _____ is an unresolved situation which encourages the reader to continue.

Point of View

1. _____ is all knowing. The story presents the thoughts of all characters.
2. _____ is when the story is told from the viewpoint of one character.
3. _____ points of view are when the story is told by more than one character.